woman is the family. In family we learn our past and define our future and occasionally because of family we redefine our future. The rise of the Black man and woman will be a direct reflection of the elevation of the family. Our families nurture us and are the lens through which we first view the world. The initial establishment of a relationship creates a dynamic ripple effect that can either negatively or positively impact the soul of the person for generations to come. The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan once said, "they breed horses better than they breed people" meaning that more care and consideration goes into preserving and extending the blood line of thorough-bred horses than goes into perfecting and evolving the human being. When Allah (God) is the true center of the relationship, then god's come forward and progress is unlimited, but when Allah (God) is an afterthought, then the progress of the couple is limited, stymied and erratic at best. In his first book, Bro. Nuri Muhammad wants to create a paradigm shift, wherein the reader will evolve to see family as the perfect reflection of the first Allah's self-creation and that family formation in this critical time must be seen as the foundation of dynasties. We are not only living in the now, we are creating the future through our words, deeds and actions. That which is done out of sync with the time is done in vain and is born from a reptilian mindset. The entire existence of reptiles can be categorized as a struggle to ensure three primary and primal needs—food, procreation (sex) and the seeking of shelter from the elements. For far too many people these same primal needs have become the motivating foundation for entering into relationships. We can no longer as a people afford to think only in terms of the now, we must think in terms of the future perfect tense. Before You

"they say". Exactly who is the "they"? Well, it has now been revealed that the "they" is society. Just like some men choose to be "eunuchs" the modern translation is single but straight for the sake of the gospel. Matthew 19:12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. 1 Corinthians 7:32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: Many women have also chosen to be single for the sake of the gospel. 1 Corinthians 7:34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. Everybody is unique and different and because the good Lord, God our Father allows us the freedom to choose. You can choose to be single or married. Marriage was created by God the Father. All born-again Christian ladies before you say, "I Do", you must know the right questions to ask for your marriage to be a "forever after" until death do us part. These questions are designed to open up honest and candid

The Book to Read Before You Say "I Do" If you're headed for the altar -- or you're in a serious relationship that could lead to marriage -- you probably already know that issues like love, sex, money, religion, kids, in-laws, and even who has to walk the dog can become potential landmines if you and your partner don't discuss your feelings openly before you take the plunge. Now, Corey Donaldson has put together more than 500 questions --

The Perfect Remedy for Cold Feet! More than half of all couples who become engaged this year will never make it to the altar. Why? Leading experts believe it's because couples fail to really get to know their potential mate before getting engaged. Relationship expert and noted couples counselor Norm Wright steers potential brides and grooms through a series of soul-searching questions to discern if they've really met "the One." Couples will be much more confident about whether or not to pursue marriage after completing these in-depth and personal questions. Norm also addresses the delicate subject of calling off the wedding if readers discover discover the secret key principles on which to build their lives and marriage. The book offers seven principles that if used by a married couple, will increase their chances of having a long, happy, joy-filled and successful marriage. These seven principles have been developed over years of pastoral marriage counseling, the observation of successful marriages, and a personal loving relationship of the author and his wife for forty-seven years of marriage.

Nothing can fill the void caused by a lack of preparation and no one can do it for you. Even God recognises that it is your responsibility to prepare for marriage, so He will not do for you what you can do for yourself. I do not contest the fact that many singles are oblivious of the essential preparation they should make before a wedding ceremony, which is why I took the pains to
