Winner of the 2016 Perfumed Plume Award The "Alice Waters of American natural perfume" (indieperfume.com) and author of the Art of Flavor celebrates our most potent sense, through five rock stars of the fragrant world Mandy Aftel is widely acclaimed as a trailblazer in natural perfumery. Over two decades of sourcing the finest aromatic ingredients from all over the world and creating artisanal fragrances, she has been an evangelist for the transformative power of scent. In Fragrant, through five major players in the epic of aroma, she explores the profound connection between our sense of smell and the appetites that move us, give us pleasure, make us fully alive. Cinnamon, queen of the Spice Route, touches our hunger for the unknown, the exotic, the luxurious. Mint, homegrown the world over, speaks to our affinity for the familiar, the native, the authentic. Frankincense, an ancient incense ingredient, taps into our longing for transcendence, while ambergris embodies our unquenchable curiosity. And exquisite jasmine exemplifies our yearning for beauty, both evanescent and enduring. In addition to providing a riveting initiation into the history, natural history, and philosophy of scent, Fragrant imparts the essentials of scent literacy and includes recipes for easy-to-make fragrances and edible, drinkable, and useful concoctions that reveal the imaginative possibilities of creating with—and reveling in—aroma. Vintage line drawings make for a volume that will be a treasured gift as well as a great read.

All the information you need to create your own perfumes at home. With profiles of different oils, including their healing and mood enhancing properties, and advice on which oils blend well together.

Using the same classic perfumery techniques and processes as mainstream houses, a natural perfumer can blend, dilute, age and bottle his or her own signature scent, rivaling any name brand. Perfumes, body splashes, and colognes can be healthy too when created with pure essential oils and absolutes derived from botanical ingredients harvested from the earth. Natural perfumes can be eco-friendly, unlike their lab-created synthetic counterparts whose chemicals are considered toxic environmental hazards. Now you can create natural fragrances that are subtle, giving you an aura of sweet bliss within your breathing space--only a few feet from your body. When you leave the room, your fragrance goes with you. In this guide, you will discover how to create natural Eau de parfums that develop in layers, changing gradually with the chemistry of your skin. Working in unison with your body's chemistry, your fragrance gently evolves into your own signature scent, so you smell like you, not like everybody else. Discover how to create unique fragrances unlike anything on the market that will captivate your senses. Discover simple step-by-step methods for making perfume oil without harsh chemicals. Perfumes & flavours with their products are part & parcel of our everyday life. The demand worldwide for perfumes is enormous & constantly on the increase. The perfume & flavour industry has become a major business. Mans search for substances which can produce new flavours & perfumes, substitute for expensive & or scarce ones, or augment & enhance existing desirable ones continuous a pace. The manufacture of perfume oils & flavouring compounds is an art & it means metering of the individual components in accordance with the formula, followed by blending for homogenization. But in all perfume & flavour house the oil formulas are among the best kept secrets & represent the knowhow. They play a major role in the success of the companies. Odors are also commonly called scents, which can refer to both pleasant and unpleasant odors. The terms fragrance and aroma are used primarily by the food and cosmetic industry to describe a pleasant odor, and are sometimes used to refer to perfumes. The odours are classified in various kinds such as floral, woody, rustic, balsamic, fruity, animal etc. There are numerous types of applications of perfumes in modern industrialized society such as perfumes used in soaps & detergents, paints, adhesives, air deodorants, cosmetics, toilet & beauty preparations, textiles, beverages, foods, medicines, and many more. The global flavour industry can be characterized as highly technical, specialized, and innovative. This industry is highly competitive and concentrated, compared to other product categories within the food and beverage market. The global flavours market is predicted to grow at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 2% per annum. The present book deals with the new techniques & manufacturing processes with formulae of different useful and demandable perfumes and flavours. This book will definitely help not only to perfumers & flavour chemists but to all upcoming entrepreneurs, scientists, technocrats etc.

This guide is loaded with proven strategies, tips, and years of experience that you won't find anywhere else. I've written this book to be the ULTIMATE RESOURCE for you as you grow your business. You don't have to re-invent the wheel and go through the same learning curve I did to figure out what really works and who the best suppliers are. I've already done it for you. I've been selling this guide for over 10 years. Here are a few testimonials from past customers: Hello Daphne, I received my manual a few days ago and just like you said it is packed with information. I'm in the process of getting started and very excited about it. I would like to thank you very much for your help. I'm a body oil street vendor trying to expand my business and I look forward to contacting you in the future for more information. Once again I want to thank you... G.T.-----Dear Daphne, Ok...yes, I was skeptical...but the manual is fantastic!! I have spent the past four months on nonstop daily research (and many sleepless nights as well) and only came across five of your sources. The manual is worth every penny and I consider it priceless!!! I have learned more in the last two days than I have in the last four months. I look forward to educating myself further and am very excited about my new venture. I have so many web sites to check out so I better get busy! Please accept my sincere thanks, I truly undersand all of the hard work and time you put into this. ... Best Regards, Tammy-----Daphne, I can't even begin to explain what a help you have been...[my first day] I set a goal of $50. I know that may not be much...but it was a lot to me. I have already sold $60. I am ready to cry just knowing I put my mind to it and I did it. But I NEVER could have done all of this without the help of your manual. I remember sitting and reading from other people how this manual had helped them and wondering if I really wanted to spend the money. Remember I even emailed you, lol. Thank you so much for your knowledge and your wonderful manual and especially [allowing me to email you.] I am just getting started but I am SO excited!.. Ruth K. ----I think you'll be inspired by this guide - and when you begin using the strategies to sell your oils, you'll find it's the best $35 you've invested in yourself this year.

Aroma CareT: Make your own Perfume, gives easy to follow instructions on how to create your own signature scent using essential oils. Also included is a chapter on how to make your own floral water. Sample recipes for perfume blends are included. Great craft for get-togethers.

As long as there has been passion, there has been perfume. Wealthy Romans used to scent their doves while in Shakespeare's time, a woman in love would place a peeled apple into her armpit to saturate it with her scent and then present it to her lover. Essence And Alchemy resurrects the social and metaphysical legacy that is entwined with the evolution of perfumery, from the dramas of the spice trade to the quests of the alchemists. Aftel tracks scent through the boudoir and the bath and into the sanctums of worship, and along the way teaches us the art of perfume-making, including many of her own recipes, offering insights on the relationship of scent to solitude, sex, and soul.

Organic Perfume: (FREE Bonus Included) 35 Perfect Organic Perfume Recipes That Will Last All Day Long There is nothing better than having your very own signature scent. When you walk into a room and everyone knows you are there because of the sweet smell that follows, or perhaps that nice little subtle scent that gently fills the room before you walk in... It can be hard to know what your scent should be. There are countless choices out there, all claiming to be just what you need. You see commercials that look cool, you see row after row of bottles in department stores, and every now and then you get an email or even snail mail all trying to get you to choose that scent. Then there is the issue of the chemicals. Perfume has a lot of chemicals, and you certainly don't want to be spraying that all over your body. You have to be able to know for certain that what you are putting on your body is entirely organic, entirely healthy, and entirely up to your high standards. You need to be able to pronounce what you put onto your skin, and you have to be able to know for certain that it is good for you. Which is why you insist on organics, and why you insist on having the best of the best. In order to know for certain what is in your perfume, you have to make it yourself. And that can be intimidating. You read the back of the perfumes, and with all those ingredients, how are you supposed to do all that yourself? How are you supposed to know where to get the right ingredients, or how much to use? That is where this book comes in. In it, I am going to show you how to make your very own perfume, and what you can do to make it healthy, sexy, and last all day long! Learn how to make your own perfume and how to make it last Learn the recipes to a wide range of perfumes, giving you tons of options Mix and match to get exactly what you want every time And more! Perfume making is a craft enjoyed by millions of creative people around the world. It is likewise an art because it involves the creation of beautiful things. Making your own perfume is in many ways a practical skill. You can choose how much you spend and save lots of money on pricey brand names. You can save several hours of time and effort looking through rows and rows of all kinds of perfume varieties in a store. What's more, you can personalize everything. If you favor a particular scent, for instance, you can create that exclusively for you. If you're allergic to several ingredients, you can be sure your own fragrance is perfectly safe for you to use. Best of all, you can sell your homemade perfumes at an affordable cost and gain big profits from it. But, the real fun and joy in making your own scents is that it calls for you to display your artistic genius. Perfume making is not simply mixing and blending stuff. It involves a certain keenness of your sense of smell and a special talent for picking out notes in fragrances so that when you mix and blend scents they smell irresistibly fragrant and not intensely cloying. Making your own perfumes at home is a simple process. But, it can also be very detailed especially when you're making your own signature fragrance. This book is an excellent guide to the beginner perfume maker who also intends to make a business out of his/her craft. There are great tips for: * The first steps to making your own perfume * Supplies needed and where to obtain them * Selling your home made perfumes Plus more great secrets that you will find really helpful and useful for making homemade perfumes that are original, authentic and oh so irresistibly sweet-scented that anyone will find them so desirable to buy!

Commercial perfumes can be expensive, and often contain harmful chemicals that you don't want anywhere near your skin. Making your own perfumes at home using herbs and essential oils can be a healthier, cheaper, and all-natural alternative—and it's surprisingly easy to get started. The information in this book gives you a basic introduction to the art of perfume making. Making perfume is an excellent way to experiment and be creative while still pouring your energies into something productive—the end result of which is an alluring and healthy alternative to the commercial perfumes for sale in the store. In this book, you have everything you need to experiment with different scents. As a beginner or professional, you can learn perfume making skills or enhance your existing skills with the wide range of easy recipes in this book. Now is the time to have fun creating blends of different essential oils together with other natural ingredients to form beautiful aromatic fragrances that will stand you out. Perfumes are mixtures of fragrant essential oils or aroma compounds, fixatives, and solvents used to give a pleasant scent to people or places. Many of the compounds that make up a perfume can be manufactured or extracted from plant or animal sources. Perfumes have been known to exist in some of the earliest human civilizations, either through ancient texts or from archaeological digs. Modern perfumery began in the late 19th century with the commercial synthesis of aroma compounds such as vanillin or coumarin, which allowed for the composition of perfumes with smells previously unattainable solely from natural aromatics alone. This publication will give you the knowledge to create perfumes, scents and fragrances from natural and some synthetic sources. The techniques are based on classical recipes and includes perfumes, fragrances, scents, soaps, pomades and oils, creams, emulsions, milks, bouquets and nosegays as well as other traditional products.
