Disney Pixar Inside Out Book of the Film

A young girl's emotions help her deal with moving to a strange place and making new friends. Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards. Spotlight is a division of ABDO.

From an adventurous balloon ride above the clouds to a monster-filled metropolis, Academy Award®-winning director Pete Docter ("Monsters, Inc.," "Up") has taken audiences to unique and imaginative places. In Disney•Pixar's original movie " Inside Out," he will take us to the most extraordinary location of all—inside the mind. Growing up can be a bumpy road, and it's no exception for Riley, who is uprooted from her Midwest life when her father starts a new job in San Francisco. Like all of us, Riley is guided by her emotions – Joy, Fear, Anger, Disgust, and Sadness. The emotions live in Headquarters, the control center inside Riley's mind, where they help advise her through everyday life. As Riley and her emotions struggle to adjust to a new life in San Francisco, turmoil ensues in Headquarters. Although Joy, Riley's main and most important emotion, tries to keep things positive, the emotions conflict on how best to navigate a new city, house and school. In this groundbreaking and illuminating film, Pixar Animation Studios examines the extraordinary depths of the mind and the powers of emotion and imagination. The Art of Inside Out provides an exclusive look into the artistic exploration that went into the making of this vibrant film. Featuring concept art—including sketches, collages, color scripts, and much more—and opening with a foreword by actress Amy Poehler and introduction by the film's writer and director Pete Docter, this is the ultimate behind-the-scenes experience of the making of this landmark film. Featuring an original story from the world of Pixar's Inside Out, this jacketed picture book will appeal to every fan of this remarkable film. "Le projet photographique de JR prend plusieurs formes artistiques dans la capitale. "'Inside Out'" c'est à la fois un documentaire, une performance participative et ludique et une exposition géante sur les murs de la BNF de Paris. JR, Photographe français, attaché à son anonymat mais connu dans le monde entier parle de cette envie d'inverser le processus de création. ||120 pays, 170 000 personnes ont participé jusqu'à présent au projet Inside Out. "'J'ai inversé le processus de mon travail, j'ai dit aux gens vous m'envoyez vos photos, je les imprime et vous les collez"'.||Ce projet aujourd'hui dépasse l'artiste. Ces portraits deviennent de véritables manifestes dans des pays où la liberté d'expression est bridée, comme en Russie. ||L'idée du projet "'Inside out'" était de fédérer des pays du monde entier autour d'un projet artistique. Il s'agissait de donner à chacun la possibilité de partager avec le monde son portrait et un message. Au final, chacun s'est approprié la démarche qui est devenue une grande chaîne de solidarité. Dans 120 pays, des regards, des visages, des sourires s'affichent en grand, parfois là où les libertés sont bafouées où la misère gangrène mais où l'être humain existe encore un peu..."
