

Emigrimi I Popullsisë

Recent years have witnessed a significant growth of interest in the consequences of political violence and displacement for the young. However, when speaking of "children" commentators have often taken the situation of those in early and middle childhood as representative of all young people under eighteen years of age. As a consequence, the specific situation of adolescents negotiating the processes of transition towards social adulthood amidst conditions of violence and displacement is commonly overlooked. Years of Conflict provides a much-needed corrective. Drawing upon perspectives from anthropology, psychology, and media studies as well as the insights of those involved in programmatic interventions, it describes and analyses the experiences of older children facing the challenges of daily life in settings of conflict, post-conflict and refuge. Several authors also reflect upon methodological issues in pursuing research with young people in such settings. The accounts span the globe, taking in Liberia, Afghanistan, South Africa, Peru, Jordan, UK/Western Europe, Eastern Africa, Iran, USA, and Colombia. This book will be invaluable to those seeking a fuller understanding of conflict and displacement and its effects upon adolescents. It will also be welcomed by practitioners concerned to develop more effective ways of providing support to this group.

albanische Emigration am Ende des 20. Jahrhunderts

Albanian National Women Report

Analysing the post-1990 Albanian migration to Italy, this text is a study of one of Europe's newest, most dramatic yet least understood migrations. It explores the dynamics of this migration and takes a look at migrants' employment, housing and social exclusion in the country, as well as the process of return migration to Albania.

"This academic and personal journey into Albania's post-communist society examines the links between internal and international migration in one of Europe's poorest countries. The author follows rural migrants to urban destination both within Albania and in neighboring Greece. Their lives and experiences are captured in 150 interviews, alongside group discussions and the ethnographic observations. This rich empirical material is analysed with reference to an extensive body of literature. The author's own experience as migrant and reflections as a researcher studying her own communities of origin add valuable insights. The result is a demonstration of the complexity of the links between internal and international migration, especially from a development perspective."--back cover.

Kultura popullore

Since the demise of Communism, Albanians have been extremely exposed to the forces of the liberal market economy and the turbulence of globalization. No other country in this region of Europe has experienced such tremendous social and economic transformations. The contributions in this book tackle important areas of change in Albania, from both contemporary and historical perspectives. The book focuses on the political, legal, and administrative dimensions; on various effects of migration; on changing family and kinship relations; and on the transformation of gender positions. Mit dem Gedenkband "Wir sind die Deinen" für Martin Camaj (21.07.1925-12.03.1992), der von 1971 bis 1988 die erste Professur für Albanologie im deutschsprachigen Raum innehatte, mochten 33 ehemalige Freunde, Schuler, Kollegen und Kenner seines literarischen und wissenschaftlichen Werkes ein Zeichen ihrer persönlichen und wissenschaftlichen Verbundenheit setzen.Mehr als eine einfache Widmung an diese zentrale Figur der albanischen Exilliteratur und der albanologischen Forschung in der zweiten Hälfte des letzten Jahrhunderts ist der von Bardhyl Demiraj herausgegebene Gedenkband bestrebt, den Kenntnisstand in verschiedenen Bereichen der albanologischen Forschung darzustellen und die Albanologie als komplexe Disziplin zu präsentieren. Dabei werden denjenigen Fragen besondere Aufmerksamkeit geschenkt, die den Schwerpunkten im Wirkungsfeld des Schriftstellers und Albanologen Martin Camaj Rechnung tragen, darunter Albanische Sprachwissenschaft und Literaturwissenschaft und Volks- und Kulturgeschichte. Der Band richtet sich an alle verwandten Disziplinen sowie an alle Interessenten albanischer und balkanischer Themenbereiche.

Das vorliegende Werk beschäftigt sich mit der für die albanische Gesellschaft gravierendsten Erfahrung des vergangenen Jahrzehnts: mit der Emigration bzw. Arbeitsemigration eines erheblichen Teils der Bevölkerung, in erster Linie nach Griechenland und Italien. Kaum eine Familie, aus der nicht ein Mitglied vorübergehend im Ausland lebt. Die Auswirkungen der Migrationswelle sind vielfältig: sie beeinflusst die demographische, ökonomische und alltagskulturelle Entwicklung des Landes. Neben der demographischen Entwicklung im vergangenen Jahrzehnt, dem Einfluss der Medien auf Migrationsverhalten, Migrationsstrategien und Identitätsfragen zeigt der Band auch die unterschiedlichen und parallelen Auswirkungen der Migration in zwei unterschiedlichen dorflichen Kontexten, einem muslimischen und einem christlich-orthodoxen Dorf.

Masters Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Economics - Case Scenarios, grade: 10, University Of Vlora Ismail Qemali, language: Albanian, abstract: The purpose of this paper is to analyze poverty, human capital and the relationship between them in Albania. Poverty is among the main problems of the world economy and poverty reduction today is considered as the main objective of the new millennium. Poverty in Albania grew after the 1990s. We had the following years of poverty reduction, but in recent years, we have again a slight increase. When analyzing data from the World Bank and other sources by linear regression, it appears that the rate of enrollment in primary education has a negative effect on GDP per capita, while there are positive correlations for GDP per capita and the rate of enrollment in secondary education. This paper suggests that, in order to enable the reduction of poverty, we need a greater involvement of the poor in the economy and increase the quantity and quality of human capital in Albania.
