Do you long to draw closer to God in prayer and song? Imagine what a 30-day conversation with devout followers of Jesus might mean for your own journey. Featuring the spiritual writings of Methodist women and hymns written by women of many Christian traditions, this devotional resource will open your life to deeper connection with God. These creative women invite you through prayer and song to consider what it would mean for God to fill your heart with love. Each of the thirty readings includes a scriptural text, a prayer, and a hymn selection from The United Methodist Hymnal, covering a full spectrum of spiritual themes. Recommendations for the use of the book are also included, both for individuals and small groups. Immerse yourself for a month in the wisdom of these women, open your heart to the indwelling of God's grace and love, and see what the Spirit births in your lives.

(Instrumental Play-Along). Solo arrangements of 13 songs from the beloved Boubllil and Schonberg musical, including: Bring Him Home * Castle on a Cloud * Do You Hear the People Sing? * I Dreamed a Dream * In My Life * On My Own * Stars * and more.

This book is composed of poems and short stories. The poems and stories have to do with real life experiences that the author has dealt with. Most of the poems have to do with the author personal struggles between "flesh" and "spirit." The author also has put some poems of love and heartbreak, and also the love he has for family and friends. These poems were written by the author between the years 2001 and 2008 with the newer poems towards the back of the book. The majority of the poems were written between 2001 and 2003. This is a book for all ages. The author speaks of struggles in general so that each reader can apply their personal situation and gain comfort from there. The author holds nothing back in the book and really puts his life and paper and presents it to the public.

Music Theory through Musical Theatre takes a new and powerful approach to music theory. Written specifically for students in music theatre programs, it offers music theory by way of musical theatre. Not a traditional music theory text, Music Theory through Musical Theatre tackles the theoretical foundations of musical theatre and musical theatre literature with an emphasis on what students will need to master in preparation for a professional career as a performer. Veteran music theatre musician John Franceschina brings his years of experience to bear in a book that offers musical theatre educators an important tool in equipping students with what is perhaps the most important element of being a performer: the ability to understand the language of music in the larger dramatic context to which it contributes. The book uses examples exclusively from music theater repertoire, drawing from well-known and more obscure shows and songs. Musical sight reading is consistently at the forefront of the lessons, teaching students to internalize notated music quickly and accurately, a particularly necessary skill in a world where songs can be added between performances. Franceschina consistently links the concepts of music theory and vocal coaching, showing students how identifying the musical structure of and gestures within a piece leads to better use of their time with vocal coaches and ultimately enables better dramatic choices. Combining formal theory with practical exercises, Music Theory through Musical Theatre will be a lifelong resource for students in musical theatre courses, dog-eared and shelved beside other professional resource volumes.

*(Vocal Selections). 16 songs from the beloved musical, including 7 songs never before in a songbook!
