(Revised 2004 -

book makes a significant

contribution to our

"Intelligence

developed over
the last twenty-five years within the

subject is still at a relatively early

stage of development.

There has been extensive published analysis of the United States intelligence system, and some also of its British counterpart; but there is little writing about Western-style intelligence as a whole, and

almost nothing on contemporary non-
Western systems.

The subject as a
whole lacks the comparative

identify the
commonalities that
give intelligence
everywhere its place - an

the gap. Its subject

is one that has

else: What gives

of certainty and

close to the policy

Intelligence's
concern is with
