The Government's plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much, too fast. Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system. GCSEs need "significant improvements" in order to restore public confidence in the exam system, but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair. MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate, where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come, according to the Government's plans. The report also questions how well the Government's proposals will serve lower attaining pupils, who are often the most disadvantaged. There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under-achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs. The Government is also called upon to re-think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils. MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run, but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards. The report is critical of the Government's decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system. MPs also note the wide-ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government's proposals. Competitive examination preparation takes enormous efforts & time on the part of a student to learn, practice and master each unit of the syllabus. To check proficiency level in each unit, student must take self-assessment to identify his/her weak areas to work upon, that eventually builds confidence to win. Also performance of a student in exam improves significantly if student is familiar with the exact nature, type and difficulty level of the questions being asked in the Exam. With this objective in mind, we are presenting before you this book containing unit tests. Some features of the books are- The complete syllabus is divided into logical units and there is a self- assessment tests for each unit. Tests are prepared by subject experts who have decade of experience to prepare students for competitive exams. Tests are as per the latest pattern of the examination. Detailed explanatory solution of each test paper is also given. Student is advised to attempt these Tests once they complete the preparation/revision of unit. They should attempt these Test in exam like environment in a specified time. Student is advised to properly analyze the solutions and think of alternative methods and linkage to the solutions of identical problems also. We firmly believe that the book in this form will definitely help a genuine, hardworking student. We have put our best efforts to make this book error free, still there may be some errors.

We would appreciate if the same is brought to our notice. We wish to utilize the opportunity to place on record our special thanks to all faculty members and editorial team for their efforts to make this book.
