

The Basket Of Flowers Illustrated

"The Land of the Blue Flower" – Amor is a young orphaned king who, advised by a wise old man, leaves his dark and gloomy kingdom. He returns with the seeds of blue flower which turns out to be magical. "The Story of Prince Fairyfoot" is the tale of a young prince who represents an embarrassment for his large footed royal family. He leaves the royal castle, and walks off to live with the family. "Grain of Wheat" is the tale that follows the adventures and escapades of a single grain from the time it gets planted into the ground to the time she gets consumed. This grain is extremely proud of itself, wanting to be the best at being seed, flower or a cake. "In the Closed Room" – Judith is a beautiful young girl who resembles her Aunt Hester who died at fifteen. Her parents become caretakers of her sudden death of their child. In the closed room of the spooky house Judith meets a new friend.

This is the touching story of a young girl Mary and her father James. James is a Gardener and teaches principles of godliness to his daughter using flowers as lesson examples. When falsely accused of theft Mary has to decide to stand up for what is right no matter the penalty or cost to herself. This story teaches the lesson to remain faithful and thankful to God even in the midst of great trials and especially when standing in the face of false accusation and persecution for crimes you didn't commit. The Paperback version of this book is illustrated in black and white due to printing costs, it comes with a free color illustrated kindle version when purchased.

Johann Christoph von Schmid (1768-1854) was a writer of children's stories and educator. He studied theology and was ordained priest in 1791. He then served as assistant in several parishes until 1796, when he was placed at the head of a large school in Thannhausen on the Mindel, where he taught for many years. He soon began writing books for children which taught Christian values. Many say that he was the pioneer writer of books for youths. His original purpose for writing was to reward his students after school by reading his books to them. His writings have been translated into 24 languages. His principle juvenile works are: Biblische Geschichte fr Kinder, Der Weihnachtsabent, Genovena, Ostereier, Das Blumenkrbschen, and Erzhlungen fr Kinder und Kinderfreunde (1823- 1829). His autobiography, Erinnerungen aus Meinem Leben, was published in 1853-1857. From 1816 to 1826 he was parish priest at Oberstadion in Wrtemberg. In 1826, Christoph von Schmid was appointed canon of the Cathedral of Augsburg, where he died of cholera when he was eighty seven.
